

When a title shows as available in on order it has been ordered for the library but either has not yet arrived or is being processed by Technical Services. It is not yet available for checkout but it is available for a hold to be placed on it.